

The Hidden Truth

After your travels, you wake up in your chambers to find someone had snuck in during the night and hung a map of the land in your room. The map has several pushpins denoting the locations you've visited. On your dresser under the map sits a ball of red twine and a note, which reads, "You've done well so far, but the full truth still lies hidden. A force has swept across the land, and it is at the heart of all the mysteries you've unraveled. If you can chart its course from place to place and use all the clues you've gathered, you can finally reveal who is behind it all." Unfortunately, the note writer has left you only a smattering of information to determine the trail of this secret mastermind.

- ☐ The trail begins in either Stumper City or Tangle Town and then proceeds immediately to the other.
- ☐ The trail ends somewhere north of Decipher Desert.
- ☐ The sixth location isn't Cryptic Canyon, the Cave of Curiosity, or Jigsaw Woods.
- ☐ The trail goes from Mount Perplexity to either Jigsaw Woods or Riddle Lake.
- ☐ There are exactly five locations on the trail between the Mystery Shack and Stumper City.
- ☐ The third location on the trail is southeast of the second location.
- ☐ Two consecutive points on the trail are Decipher Desert and the Ruins of Lost Quandary, in that order.
- ☐ The seventh location on the trail is Conundrum Manor.
- ☐ There are exactly four locations on the trail between Enigma Falls and Riddle Lake.
- ☐ The fourth location isn't Enigma Falls, Riddle Lake, or the Ruins of Lost Quandary.
- ☐ The trail visits the Cave of Curiosity some time before Jigsaw Woods (which is somewhere to the east of the ninth location on the trail).
- ☐ Cryptic Canyon isn't the location that immediately follows Riddle Lake on the trail.
